INTRODUCE

Use BRING in context and try to explain it at the learner's level. Modeling, touching the word in the vocabulary as you say it, may help. Here's an example: "BRING means you take something from one place to another or make something happen."

MODEL

Model the word throughout the day, touching BRING in the vocabulary anytime you say it.

"They will BRING a pie."

"Please BRING me a hammer."

"I am BRINGING my dog to school."

"Who is BRINGING the game?" "BRING the water to a boil."

ENCOURAGE

Create activities to provide lots of models and practice with BRING.

Book: "If You Ever Want to BRING..." books by Elise Parsley

Song: Bumble bee - "I'm BRINGING home a baby bumble bee."

Activity: Scavenger Hunt. "BRING me something blue"

EXPECT

Create opportunities for the learner to say the word. Make sure to wait and look at them so they know it is expected.

For requests, substitute BRING for 'want' or 'need'.

"BRING me the _____"

For comments, "That BRINGS me joy."
