About Unity

- Unity is a Minspeak system, organized in word families.
- The symbols on the home screen can mean more than one thing (multiple meaning symbols).
- Words in each word family are "related" to each other.
- Organizing words this way in an AAC system promotes semantic mapping and webbing – which is considered good practice when focusing on vocabulary teaching.

Chart Key:

Symbol – the image on the button

Symbol Name – how you would search for it; the name may be different from the label on the button

Verb – action word(s) associated with core symbol. Color = green button

Adjective – describing words(s) associated with core symbol. Color = blue button (Note: Adverbs that end in -ly will also be listed.)

Noun – category noun(s) associated with core symbol. Color = orange button

HVIDCPQA – The sequences for these words start with the grammatical category symbols on home screen. Not all are available on the home screen at lower grid levels.

H = Helping Verbs

I = Interjections
